

WHERE WE ARE	WHAT WE DO	WHERE WE WANT TO BE
The Upper Cumberland Community Foundation serves Bell, Clay, Knox, Laurel, and Whitley Counties by providing leadership, building a culture of giving, and supporting nonprofit organizations and agencies. The Foundation has a strong, active board and has developed credibility in communities. Our rural region is a place of great natural beauty and home to resilient, hard-working people. Another regional asset is that our communities are quiet and safe places to raise a family. Through the Upper Cumberland Community Foundation, people in the region have recognized the power of looking beyond county lines, identifying our assets, and collaborating on efforts that build upon the region’s potential. The region has opportunity to engage local existing resources and new outside investments for regional development. The Upper Cumberland Community Foundation stands poised to enrich the quality of life by focusing resources on strengthening nonprofit and community efforts to address challenges to meeting the region’s full potential. As communities seek to redevelop downtowns, strengthen our economy, build a strong workforce, educate our children, and care for our vulnerable populations, the foundation supports a strong network of community leaders and organizations. The Upper Cumberland Community Foundation seeks to expand collaborative efforts that lift up and build upon our region’s assets, address challenges, and enrich the quality of life for all people.	The Upper Cumberland Community Foundation works to enrich the quality of life for the citizens of Bell, Clay, Knox, Laurel, and Whitley Counties.	The Upper Cumberland Community Foundation has enriched the quality of life by strengthening the region through charitable giving, community involvement, and strategic partnerships.
